Eversheds China Head appointed as Chairman of Energy Working Group for the EUCCC in Shanghai

International law firm Eversheds China Managing Partner Peter Corne has been appointed as Chairman of Energy Working Group for the European Union Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai (EUCCC). Peter was elected to the position by the Energy Working Group members, having previously held the position of Head of the Legal Working Group for five years and being a renowned renewable energy expert.

Originally founded by 51 member companies based in China in 2000, the EUCCC is an independent, non-profit organisation whose purpose is to be the voice of European business in China, that aims to gain greater market access and improved operating conditions for European companies.

Peter Corne commented:

"I am honoured to be appointed to the position of Chairman of Energy Working Group for the EUCCC in Shanghai. I will be responsible for lobbying government, providing input to EU officials for the purpose of policy formation vis-a-vis China, devising initiatives and engaging with regional governments, and convening and leading EUCCC Energy group meetings. The appointment is testament to Eversheds first class energy team, clients and global presence".

Dr Ioana Kraft, General Manager of EUCCC said:

"We are delighted that Peter has accepted the position of Chairman of Energy Working Group for the European Union Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai. The EUCCC works for the benefit of European business as a whole and the Working Groups are its very heart and soul. Peter's first class reputation in renewables and sustainability projects made him the natural choice for such a vital role."
