

Restructuring may be right solution for your business

Eversheds Sutherland Czech Republic and Slovakia

Our team consists of 50 lawyers in the Czech Republic and Slovakia, who have experience not only in insolvency and restructuring, but also in other areas of law, including employment, corporate and financial law, real estate, M&A, litigation and more. We provide legal advice throughout the entire insolvency process to creditors and debtors as well as potential investors.

Our services include advising companies before and during insolvency proceedings, filing insolvency petitions with the court, representing clients in negotiations with the bank and creditors, and in transferring or selling companies. We advise creditors on when and how to register their claims and in negotiations or disputes with the insolvency administrator. We also advise investors on the acquisition of distressed companies, in insolvency or restructuring proceedings.
