

Commercial Contracts

Common pitfalls and precautionary measures

Shine

Sharing in-house
legal expertise

Shine is intended to help you in both your everyday work and longer term career. It delivers support, based on a deep understanding of your business, that will allow you to deliver outstanding performance. It also offers access to an international network where you can exchange views and experiences with people genuinely interested in your world.

Date: 16 May 2017

Registration: 07.30–08.00

Seminar: 08.00–09.00

Venue: Eversheds Sutherland, Earlsfort Terrace, Dublin 2

Eversheds Sutherland invites you to join us for a breakfast briefing on the developments in the area of commercial contracts– the common pitfalls and precautionary measures. The briefing will provide an overview of both the basic, and more complex issues facing in-house counsel during the contractual lifecycle. The briefing will also provide suggestions on how best to minimise an organisations risk as well as recent developments and changes in the area of commercial contracts.

Speaking at this event will be Marie McGinley, Partner, Head of IP, Technology and DP.

If you would like to attend please RSVP to Rosemarie Pollard at rosemariepollard@eversheds-sutherland.ie by Friday 12 May.

eversheds-sutherland.ie

© Eversheds Sutherland 2017. All rights reserved.

EDUB.1206