

Eversheds procurement

Procurement training for bidders event programme

London 04 May 2017, One Wood Street, EC2V 7WS
Half-day briefing £25 +VAT
Law Society CPD: 2.5 hours

Who should attend?

Anyone who bids or is interested in bidding for public sector contracts and would like to gain a better understanding of the implications of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015, including how to challenge procurement decisions. This may include those working in legal, procurement, finance, compliance and sales departments.

09.30	Registration
10.00	Seminar – topics covered: The Public Contracts Regulations 2015 – Key issues and provisions from a bidder’s perspective – What you need to know when bidding for public contracts
11.30	Break
11.45	Seminar – topics covered: Challenging procurement decisions – Obtaining information – Time limits – Remedies – Automatic suspension – Common grounds of challenge – Trends in legal challenges
13.15	End of Seminar

Speakers

Eversheds Sutherland speakers will be from our dedicated procurement team consisting of non contentious and contentious legal advisers.

For booking go to eversheds-sutherland.com/training or email training@eversheds-sutherland.com eversheds-sutherland.com/training