

Helping you see the bigger picture Eversheds Sutherland's Brexit Advisory Service

Following the European Union membership referendum in 2016, the precise nature of the UK's future relationship with the EU and the impact on businesses on the island of Ireland is currently unknown. However there are steps that can be taken to mitigate this uncertainty.

With offices in Belfast and Dublin, we are Ireland's only full service international law practice with an all-island and UK presence. We were awarded Tier 1 status for our legal advice by The Legal 500, acknowledging our firm as a go-to for Brexit contingency planning and legal advice, monitoring of developments, and client and industry specific briefings.

How we can help

Brexit will change the basis on which cross-border trade takes place. It will likely impact businesses' supply chains, employees and relationships with other stakeholders.

Our cross-border, multidisciplinary Brexit team is on hand to help by providing clear, straightforward and objective advice. We will help you identify the challenges and opportunities presented by Brexit and assist in successfully managing and implementing your plans.

Areas where we can assist include:

- Supply chains and supply chain contracts
- People issues
- Corporate structures to ensure ability to continue to trade
- Cross-border trade
- Contracts and dispute resolution provisions
- Intellectual property - trademarks
- Data flows

Advice tailored for your business

The impact of Brexit on each business will be different. It will depend, for example, on the sector, operating model, corporate structure, trading relationships and workforce profile.

As a full service law practice we advise our clients on all aspects of the law, which is particularly important to our clients trying to navigate the complex issues Brexit presents.

We offer straightforward, practical advice in many areas including:

- Aviation
- Asset management and regulation
- Banking and finance
- Company secretarial
- Competition and EU law
- Construction
- Corporate and commercial
- Data protection
- Dispute resolution and litigation
- Education
- Employment
- Energy
- FS regulation and governance
- Food, agri-business and beverage
- Fraud and white collar crime
- Health and safety
- Healthcare
- Insolvency and restructuring
- Insurance
- Intellectual property
- International trade and Brexit
- Immigration
- Life sciences
- Pensions and employee benefit
- Planning and environmental
- Public and administrative law
- Procurement and government controls
- Real estate
- Tax
- Technology, media and telecoms

"They provide timely advice, pragmatic solutions to complex problems and a willingness to help us on side issues before we realised they were coming."

Chambers Europe

"The team is forward-thinking, responsive and offers us additional support, beyond legal advice. They have an encouraging way of doing business."

Chambers Europe

Key contacts

If you would like to discuss the ways in which we can support your business to put in place the recommended contingency plans, please contact us.

If you are in Ireland, please contact:

Sean Ryan

Partner, Head of Brexit Group Ireland

+353 1 6644 207

seanryan@eversheds-sutherland.ie

If you are in Northern Ireland, please contact:

Matthew Howse

Partner, Dispute Resolution & Litigation

+44 28 9568 0139

matthewhowse@eversheds-sutherland.ie

For further information

To access our full range of Brexit resources including articles, podcasts, risk analysis tools and videos, please visit our dedication Brexit hub at www.eversheds-sutherland.com/brexit or scan the QR code.

Eversheds Sutherland is authorised by InterTradeIreland to provide Brexit-related advice under its 'Start to Plan' voucher scheme. This entitles eligible businesses to financial support for legal advice.

Disclaimer

The information is for guidance purposes only and should not be regarded as a substitute for taking legal advice.

Data protection and privacy statement

Your information will be held by Eversheds Sutherland. For details on how we use your personal information, please see our Data Protection and Privacy Policy.

eversheds-sutherland.ie

© Eversheds Sutherland 2019. All rights reserved.
EVE.DUB.2120 02/19